International Foreign Currency Conversion and International Service Assessment Up to 1% of transaction

These are network charges that apply in processing international transactions. The transaction and the assessment service charge will show as two (2) separate transactions on your statement and will be as follows:

Single-currency transactions: 0.80% will be charged for transactions that you conduct in a foreign country when the merchant accepts the transaction in US currency rather than the currency of their country.

Multi-currency transactions: 1% will be charged for transactions in a foreign country when the merchant accepts the transaction in non-US currency (usually their own country's currency). Networks are required to convert the currency during the settlement process to US currency so that the transaction may be posted to your account.
